

CHARTER

Johns Creek Veterans Association, Inc.

The Johns Creek Veterans Association, Inc. (JCVA) is an association formed within and sponsored by the City of Johns Creek, Georgia for the purpose of recognizing the contributions of the city's veterans as well as the veterans of surrounding municipalities. Membership is open to all eligible veterans as defined in the Bylaws of the Association.

As such, the JCVA will be veteran-centric in nature and will endeavor to provide support to a variety of veteran activities and to veterans themselves.

As initially formed, the JCVA will be governed by a Leadership Committee which will be charged with developing the rules and Bylaws under which it will operate. Further, the Leadership Committee will be charged with evaluating incorporation as a 501(c)(3) organization under the laws of the state of Georgia

Initial thrust of the JCVA will fall into three primary categories:

- Veterans Oral History Project – video recording the experiences of the members of the club beginning with WWII veterans and moving forward in time through current conflicts
- Outreach to returning veterans to encourage their participation in the club and to assist these veterans in obtaining the benefits earned by their service
- Social Function - Promote the general welfare of members of the association and their families.

Modification of this charter and further activities of the JCVA will be determined by the membership.
