

December 1, 2007

SCHEDULE

9am            Opening Ceremonies - State Bridge Road at Jones Bridge Road
Karyn Greer, Emmy Award-winning 11Alive News anchor/reporter and Johns Creek resident, joins City leaders and the U.S. Marines as Parade Emcee to kick-off Founders Day 2007.
Parade review stand built and sponsored by Ace Hardware Alpharetta.

10am            Parade start - West on State Bridge from W. Morton to Kimball Bridge
The Chattahoochee High and Northview High School Marching Bands strut their stuff, along with clowns, antique cars, floats and Santa!

Presented by: The Johns Creek Area Council of the Greater North Fulton Chamber of Commerce with support from Eagle Business Strategies, ExpertSigns & Promotions, HavenTrust Bank, The Peachtree Bank and WS Butler Legal Services, LLC.

3pm            Santa at Newtown Park - 3150 Old Alabama Road
Grab your camera for a picture with Santa, watch the Kids Gym USA Exhibition Tumbling Team, get your face painted and enjoy some BBQ from the Atlanta Barbeque Club.

3:30pm        City Tree Planting – City Hall, 12000 Findley Road
Johns Creek Beautification, a non-profit organization dedicated to the city's natural enhancement, presents a native White Oak Tree for planting on City Hall grounds. Tree donated by Piedmont Landscape.

4pm–7:15pm “Lights for Sight”- City Hall, 12000 Findley Road
A music/holiday light extravaganza featuring performances by students of Johns Creek's award-winning schools, benefiting Georgia Prevent Blindness. Bring an unwrapped toy for “Toys for Tots.”

Presented by: CH2M HILL OMI, CibaVision, Emory Johns Creek Hospital, Sawnee EMC, State Farm Insurance Companies and Tech Park Owners Association.

**Holiday lighting will begin at dusk at City Hall followed by a short walk to Johns Creek Tech Park's annual lighting of West Johns Crossing, with more musical performances and a Johns Creek Happy Birthday cake at Emory-Johns Creek.*

