FINAL BUSINESS CLOSURE FORM

This form is used to finalize and close an existing City of Johns Creek business account. When a business is sold, closed or moved out of the City of Johns Creek, the Revenue Division must be notified.

PLEASE NOTE:

- If any business was conducted after the business license expiration date (December 31), the business occupation tax must be paid
- A business license is NOT transferable. You must close your business account if ownership change. The new owner must apply for a new business license account.
- Failure to renew your business license will not result in automatic closure of the business account and penalty fees will occur.
- If the owner is deceased, please provide a government issued death certificate to settle/close the account.
